WHAT YOU DID TODAY

Rumbustious and boisterous in their play as some of the Third Floor boys can be, beneath the demeanour beat hearts of gold.

So it was that the following was submitted by one well qualified in such category to Chairman Geoff Eastment for publication if he deemed it so worthy. He did, and we hope you will, too.

"Is anybody happier because you passed his way;

Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today?

Were you selfish (pure and simple) as you rushed along your way?

Or is someone mighty grateful for a deed you did today?

Can you say tonight in parting with the day that's slipping fast,

That you helped a single brother in the many that you passed?

Is a single heart rejoiced over what you did or said?

Does a man whose hopes were fading now with courage look ahead?

Did you waste the day or lose it; was it well or poorly spent?

Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent?

As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say, You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today;"

VALE ARTHUR GREENHALGH

Arthur Greenhalgh was one of Tattersall's most ardent members and a "not to be missed" personality on each visit to Newcastle.

In the last issue of TCM we told of his recovery to good health, but it was only temporary, and he had a relapse and since passed away. His funeral cortège was a mile and a half long, and as his death coincided with the city's Annual Show his colleagues in showmanship from all over Australia were all there to give him a fitting farewell.

Arthur was particularly proud of his community efforts and especially his work and practical support of the Newcastle Boys' Club. We were glad recently to publish the photo of Her Majesty the Queen graciously meeting Arthur (see below).

Sydney's Royal Agricultural Show will be the poorer for his demise. The Greenhalgh and Jackson sideshow promotions were the products of agile minds.

Arthur was a Wall of Death rider when he met the American death rider and showman, Jackson.

Shows that Arthur brought to Australia included Nevada the Snake Charmer, the Pinheaded Chinaman, the Performing Pigs, Dennis O'Duffy, the Irish Giant, Chang the Chinese Midget Wonder, and a host of others.

One of Arthur's last wishes was for his ashes to be scattered over Sydney Showground.

A great and good man was Arthur.

APPRECIATION

Tim Rennesson wishes to thank his friends for their kind thoughts while he was in hospital recently, especially members of the Bowling Club.

***** CAR PARKING FOR MEMBERS

Members are reminded that there are only a few permanent spaces still available at Stocks and Holdings House, 181 Castlereagh Street, Sydney, at $45 per car per calendar month.

Casual parking is available from 6.30 p.m. Monday to Saturday at 60 cents per car per night, to be admitted only upon presentation of current membership.

The basis of our arrangement with Consolidated Press for casual parking is that our Club has been allocated 50 permanent spaces from a total of 200 in the building.

As the car park is not open to the general public, and there are only three tenants concerned, namely Tattersall's Club, Consolidated Press, and Stocks and Holdings House, our Club will have the advantage of additional space for evening parking as areas are vacated after business hours by the other tenants. Whereas this facility is generally regarded as being available from 6.30 p.m. daily, members may find that they can gain entry earlier than the time indicated.

These facilities are available to members upon the terms and conditions set out on the Club's notice boards.

All enquiries to the Secretary.

Arthur Greenhalgh being presented to the Queen.

CHRISTMAS SCRAMBLE

Each year there is a fine band of sportsmen who kindly donate the many trophies associated with the Christmas Scramble. Only pressure of space has previously precluded the sincere thanks of the committee and members of Tattersall's Amateur Swimming Club being conveyed to the 1971 donors, and this we now have pleasure in doing along with a pat on the back to each of them.

DONOR

The barometer in the Sportsman's Room is simply inscribed: "These instruments were presented to Tattersall's Club by J.A. Roles, 6.1.1930".

We were asked for some details of the donor.

The late John A. Roles joined Tattersall's Club in 1907. In 1924 he was elected to the Committee. In 1942 he moved into the office of Treasurer, and in 1951 he was given a life membership for his excellent services to the Club. He was Vice-Chairman and Treasurer when he died in 1958, and his successor was the late Frank Carberry.

A good story was told of John Roles and Mick Gearin travelling to Melbourne to see Mick's Prismatic run in the Grand National of 1934.

They were accompanied by their wives on the Melbourne Limited and the foursome played bridge.

After the game had proceeded a while a stranger who didn't know them remarked to his neighbour, "Look at those men giving each other the 'office' what to bid whenever they're playing against the women. It isn't fair."

By a strange coincidence each had a nerve twitch which caused nodding of the head. Both had a "tick" which resulted in a frequent sideways nod. They did it playing cards or any other time.

This was the "office" the spectator suspected they were giving each other at that bridge game.

When told about the incident both sportsmen had a good laugh at the suggestion that they would dare cheat their own wives . . . .

HANDY TO KNOW

We have it on good information that the champion amateur barbecueist is Ralph Doctor. He hails from Brisbane and was a fleet footed winger with BGS 1st XV. He is a member of the Royal Motor Yacht Club and indulges in harbour fishing. Ralph is a great chap ready to assist in any problems on the gourmet front. Hear ye him.

AU REVOIR

Charles Griffiths and wife Sheila were the recipients of many farewell parties prior to sailing on the Orsova for a nine months overseas holiday. Club members Bruce Upcroft and Russ Sanderson were at the terminal to join their many friends in saying "bon voyage".

LUFFING

We should at any time see Gretel II skipper Jim Hardy at the tiller of Nerida. This is a vintage yacht which Jim's father had specially built from a Scottish designer's plan more than 40 years ago.

Nerida has been restored to its original rigging and condition.

Jim has surely inherited the love of sailing, and has "blue water" in his veins.

* * *

CHEERS, BOB

We will all miss the genial smile of Bob Stewart who has retired after a 43-year association with Tattersall's Club.

He has been a part of the great developments of the Club during that period, and in his retirement will have happy memories of the generations and family friendships that made him "part and parcel" of our Club.

"Very many happy days, Bob" from the Committee, members and staff.

PUNT HIGH

Ginty Lush advises that his pal Alan Hulls whilst enjoying his retirement had a "turn" on the Terrigal bowling green. Ginty reassures us that Alan, to use his vernacular, "has kicked on better than ever," and is again rampant swimming and bowling.

* * *

CHEERS! NICK

Congratulations to popular Nick Solomon on his sharing first prize in the Opera House lottery. He entertained in the Dining Room, and Tattersall's Club bowlers have had several liquid reasons to affirm his bounteous hospitality.

* * *

HAPPY RETURN

The sincere wishes of his innumerable friends have now been realised as we greeted Leo Keating making the rounds of the Club after his lengthy hospitalisation and having dispensed with his crutches. Welcome back, Leo.

* * *

IN THEM THAR HILLS

Jack Mann recently acquired a youngster for racing, and entrusted it to trainer Morry Anderson.

They discussed a name for the horse but Morry was far from impressed and said he would give Jack a gold bike if it turned out a champion.

So the name has been registered as "Gold Bike".

* * *

CONGRATULATIONS, TED

To celebrate his 80th birthday Ted and Mrs. Forrest were hosts to their family and friends on 17th February.

His daughter and her husband, Dr. J.F. Hughes, came up from Melbourne for the occasion. Son Bill and his wife were there too.

Also in the party were Mrs. Bowcock, Keith Manion, Ken and Mrs. Williams, Fred and Mrs. Empson, John and Mrs. Inglis, Ted Webster and his daughter.

A highlight of the evening was a cake with 80 candles sent from Melbourne and made by one of his grandchildren.

May there be many happy returns, Ted.

DINING, WINING AND DANCING

Bob Lindsay retired from the ES and A Bank some 17 years ago and still keeps contact with his colleagues. We saw him entertaining Harry Graham of the ANZ head office who is shortly to leave for overseas, and joining in was Frank Daniels, retired manager of the ES and A head office.

Ken and Beryl Stevenson were very happy when they had the whole of their family in Sydney for the first time in many years. They dined at the Club and the party included son Geoffrey and his wife who are here from Canada, son Noel and his wife from Lautoko, Fiji, daughter Roslyn with husband Peter McIntyre who were visiting from "Goondi", Innisfail in Queensland, and son David with his girlfriend Diane Hosen.

Allen Irving's birthday on 21st February was well and truly recognised by a delightful luncheon which included his brother Ray, pals Greg Cullen, Phil Deaton, Os Bates, John Tyquin, along with a special greeting from Bob Parker.

NATATORIAL

Swimming has always been a "must" with Terry Buck. He first swam when at Randwick P.S. and represented his school in the championships. He made progress when he was promoted to the South Sydney H.S. and contested the Combined High Schools' events.

In 1960 he was under the guidance of Don Talbot and from 1960-1964 Terry swam in the State and National championships. This culminated in his selection for the Tokyo Olympics.

In 1965 he was included in the Australian surfing team which toured the USA. In 1966 Terry retired from swimming activities to enter the trucking business. But he could not forsake his old love and after two years became a professional swimming coach.

Terry is married with two daughters aged four and two, both budding champs.

Wife Laraine's athletic leanings are for basketball and running.

RETURN TO PRESIDENCY

Prominently known in Sydney's Eastern Suburbs for his honorary efforts in the business, social and sporting communities, Jack Barrett has returned to the presidency of the Double Bay Chamber of Commerce.

Just a few of his diverse interests include life member RSL, honorary treasurer of Wentworth House (the Vaucluse historic site), patron of 18 Footers Sailing League, vice-president of Eastern Suburbs R.L., vice-president of Easts' Australian Rules Club, member of the AJC, STC, SCG, RAS, and Double Bay Bowling Club.

BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER

Time is fast approaching for the commencement of the annual Billiards and Snooker tournaments. They are a Tattersall's Club tradition dating back to its formation.

With the increase in membership it is a pleasing feature that the facilities in the Club are being extensively used. It affords an excellent opportunity for new members to get together and many friendships are thus formed.

Follow these columns for the tournament arrangements.

The prizes are of a high standard and the special annual snooker trophy presented by Tom Powell can only be adequately described as a "beauty".

IN THE NEWS

Sir Asher Joel to supervise the glamour Opera House opening; N.K. Wran, QC, appointed Leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Council; W.J. (Bill) Stack elected president of the Taronga Zoo Trust; member of the Legislative Assembly since 1941 Bill Sheahan announced his retirement from politics; son Terry, also Tattersall's member, indicated desire to follow in dad's footsteps; retiring Chief Justice Sir Leslie Herron to become Lieutenant-Governor; Greg and Neil Rogers Munich Olympics bound (proud father is Norman); Lord Mayor Sir Emmet McDermott and Lady Arline (Betty) back from one of the busiest but most interesting world intineraries possible; Clyde Kennedy appointed chairman STC; Newman Manion relinquishes post; George Ryder now vice-president and Dan Calman is treasurer.

INGENUITY

Nowell Jones has promised us a list of his horses and the races, not that they have won, but those in which he has run last, absolute last.

They range from graduations to last year's Melbourne Cup. He has a philosophy which he states "Use words not to express thoughts but merely to disguise them".

He instances the naming of his latest equine acquisition. He applied for Onward, and was rejected, it having already been registered, so he compromised with Christian Soldier!!

ALLEZ

Trained by Jack Green is a promising two year old named Allez.

Allez is the French word for "go". and the two year old is half brother to Black Onyx who was a champion "goer".

But there is another reason for the name. Allez was the maiden name of Mel Watson's attractive French wife, Beatrice. She races the colt in partnership with her daughter Penny Crittle, wife of member Peter.

As Peter toured with the Australian Rugby Union Wallabies and is captain of the Eastern Suburbs RU side, he too, is another "goer".

RUGBY UNION

Bill Burge, born in Mosman, went to Shore where he played in 1st XV and the 1st XI. He followed up his Rugby Union with Northern Suburbs and was a member of the winning grand final team with John Thorne as captain in 1963, and again in the successful side of 1964 with Derry Hill as skipper.

Bill, now a solicitor and married to Ann with a young family, confines his sporting activities to regular Third Floor participation and golfs at Royal Sydney.

When we mentioned the famous Glebe R.L. players of the past, Frank Burge and his brothers, Bill claimed no relationship, and we even feel that he had not even heard of them. So time and history marches on.

* * *

COLORADO

Enjoying the facilities of the Club and quickly being assimilated in the Third Floor atmosphere is New York Marine Midland Bank representative Wilson H. Banks, Jnr.

As a visiting member he has made close friends with the local fraternity and enjoys his regular swims in our pool, along with his workouts with the medicine ball supervised by Bruce Corlett.

Wilson and wife Kathie have two bonny children, both girls, aged three and one. He was born in Colorado, USA, and was educated as an engineer at the US Naval Academy, Annapolis.

In his new environment we found Wilson introducing the visiting assistant vice president of the N.Y. Bank, Tudor ("I was born in Wales") Morris to his newly found Tattersall's Aussie mates.

NIGHT OUT

Bill Yewdall was born in Melbourne and naturally played Australian Rules. In 1939 he joined the RAAF and had a spell in Sydney when he played with the Eastern Suburbs side. Bill was ruckman and a team mate was famous cricketer Keith Miller.

Bill has been with Tattersall's Club for seven years and is a member of the handball and swimming clubs. He has won a Winooka A grade championship and is in the Tattersall's Plate side.

Bill has a "private war" with Bruce Partridge. They are conducting a 100 match handball series, the loser to pay for a wives' night out.

It's even Stevens so far.

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

HYAM OWEN, M.B., Ch.M.

After 45 years Tattersall's Club member Dr. Hyam Owen has retired from active practice at Rose Bay where he has been known to many Eastern Suburbs' citizens.

As a mark of esteem his colleagues in the Eastern Suburbs' Medical Association recently elected him a life member.

Hyam comes from a highly respected family of doctors, there being 13 medical graduates of Sydney University in his and his wife's families. He was born in Condobolin on the Lachlan River, then educated at Fort St. High School. Dr. Owen graduated in 1924.

He attributes his physical fitness to his regular exercise at Sydney University Rowing Club and on the tennis courts. His 10 2/5ths seconds for the 100 yards sprint was his best run in those days.

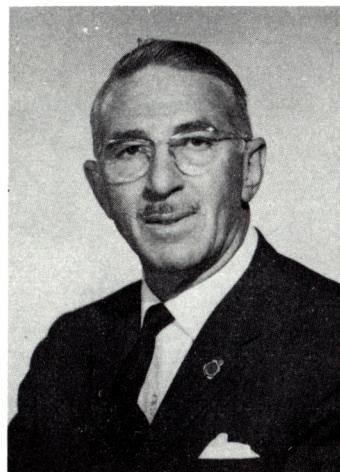

He started general practice in King's Cross in 1926 and lived and practised in Rose Bay and Macquarie St., Sydney, practically ever since.

Hyam joined the Army medical corps in 1936 when his friend Brigadier Joe Steigrad told him "Mussolini is going through Ethiopia, we'd better stop him before he gets to Jaffa!"

He served in the AAMC throughout World War II attaining the rank of lieutenant-colonel, and recently received the Founders' Medallion from the Rose Bay RSL Club.

Dr. Owen is affectionately known to his large circle of friends as the "Rose Bay Clipper", and he says that is one department of his duty from which he will not retire.

In 1959 he was a delegate for the NSW branch of the Australian Medical Association at the British Medical Association's congress in Edinburgh and in Montreal. Again in 1964 he took part in discussions at Helsinki at a meeting of the World Medical Association.

Outside his medical work he is a keen club man including Elanora Country Club (golf) and Double Bay Bowling Club, where he is known as Omar Hyam for his poetic efforts in the club's bulletin.

From 1960 to 1963 he was president of the Jewish Ex-service Association. He is now serving his third year as president of the Great Synagogue of Sydney. One of his mottos is "To serve, to preserve, and to deserve."

Hyam believes in giving a little more service than is expected, a little more than is paid for, a sort of "bread upon the waters." He says the "cake" comes back to him in friendship, loyalty and support. Thus he retains his faith in human nature. His wife calls him the perfect Pollyanna.

He is extremely proud of his wife, also an alumna of Sydney University, and whose rich contralto voice has been heard at many charity functions. They have two children and five grandchildren. Both children are graduates of Sydney University and have married graduates of the same university.

Hyam's son, Dr. Earl Owen, is a world recognised authority in micro-surgery and tissue transplantation. Daughter Pamela for many years held the unique post of phonetics expert at the ABC studios.

TCM of June 1955 contained the following paragraph:

"Every year about this time Dr. Hyam Owen does his own very nice thing, he arranged a luncheon in the Dining Room for himself, Jim Cromwell and Les Harrison. The anniversary he celebrates is the date of his election in 1950 to the Club, and the two he entertains are of course his proposer and seconder. A pleasant gesture to his friends, and a pleasant compliment to the Club, that he should feel his membership so important to him that he wishes to remember the day it began."

Hyam says the idea is not copyrighted.

When asked recently for his motto for keeping so young-looking, he answered "I'll give you a free prescription: work like hell, play like hell and be regular."

Now that he has the time, we look forward to meeting Hyam more often in Tattersall's Club.

The Lakes attracted a 96-strong field for Tattersall's first golfing outing of the 1972 programme.

Some early showers failed to dampen the enthusiasm and the scoring was more than useful.

Phil Byrnes stole the honours when he combined with Lyle Carr to carry off the four-ball event with 44 points. That was one too many for consistent Peter Dind who found a smart partner in visitor Ian McAskill, a home course member.

Phil Byrnes contributed 38 points on his own which was good enough to share the sweepstake prize with Russ Sanderson.

Russ won the singles event, and his 38 points left him a three-point clear winner over Walter Levy. John Barras was next.

Tattersall's usually have some distinguished visitors on hand, and The Lakes day proved no exception. Geoff Everett, one of the State's top flight amateurs, took out the visitor's trophy with a neat 34 points, one better than Noel Hodge's 33.

Even those members and visitors who qualified for the Bradman Trophy agreed that the four course dinner and bar service in the new Lakes club house were unsurpassed.

In presenting the trophies, Allan Black expressed Tattersall's appreciation to the committee and club staff, and remarked that our golf club looked forward to the return visit later in the year.

Our 1972 programme is the most attractive yet, and we expect a big roll-up to the Royal Sydney day on Friday, 24th March.

MOST DESERVED

Tattersall's Club Golf Club Committeeman, Allan Black, has received a rare tribute in his sport.

He has been awarded life membership of the N.S.W. Golf Association which he has served as a council member for 18 years.

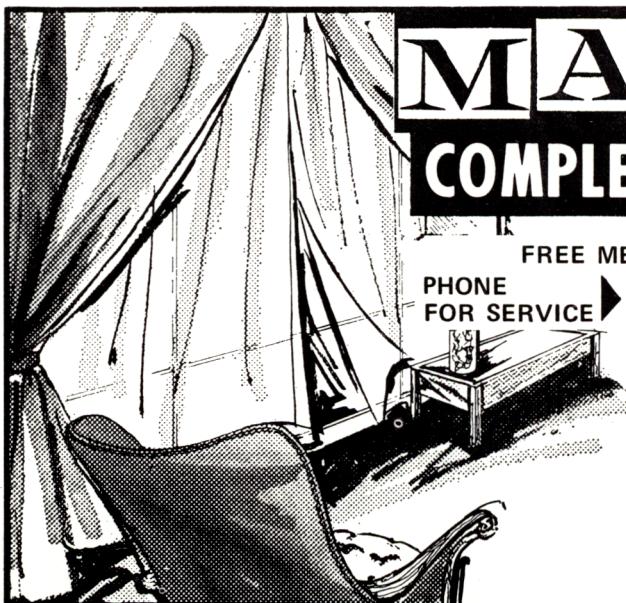

Allan served on the membership, match and journal committees, and was chairman of the handicap and course rating committee of the Association.

He was a vice-president of the Association, and one of its two longest serving councillors.

All members congratulated Allan on his well merited recognition.

SEVENTH ANNUAL TURF BOWLERS CARNIVAL AT MELBOURNE

NEWCASTLE TATTERSALL'S WIN ROUND ROBIN TROPHY

It was evident in the middle stages of the series that Newcastle would extend the Canberra Club team who were rather short priced favourites to retain the Association Trophy won in 1971.

However, on the final day the Novacastrians pressed on to win by the barest of margins — a mere half point.

Tattersall's teams faced an impossible task due to the absence of our top players, nevertheless with one win and a drawn game we managed to move out of the "wooden spoon" division.

President Fuzz Porter extends his sincere thanks to all who made the trip south. It is indeed gratifying to know we have such loyal supporters whose presence materially helped our Melbourne hosts to hold yet another successful carnival.

VAATC organisers Jim Kerr, Merv Foley and Ern Kenny are to be congratulated for their grand effort despite the ever threatening weather. The memorable farewell dinner at the Victorian Club was a fitting finale to the 1972 carnival.

CLUB TROPHY WINNERS, JANUARY/FEBRUARY:

Double Bay, 27th January, R. Darch, L. Plasto, P. McGrath.

Special Bill Chamberlain Trophy: E. Forrest, G. Gleeson, P. Solomon.

Double Bay, 2nd February, H. Porter, J. Neville, J. Williams.

City, 9th February, S. Green, J. Toft, D. Wilson.

Rose Bay, 17th February, Gordon Booth Trophy: H. Porter, J. Williams, K. Brown.

Rose Bay, 17th February, A. Legge, W.A. Walker, S. Chatterton.

NICK HEATH LANDS JAN-FEB POINT SCORE

BASIL PHILLIPS AND ROGER CLARK EQUAL IN LEAD FOR NATIVE SON TROPHY

What fantastic swimming during the month, not only in Brisbane, but in our own pool also.

With one event to complete, speedster Warren Foster led with 20 points, followed at half point intervals by John Bradshaw, Russell Debney, Ian Lane, Angus Foster and Ken Glass.

After the 16 heats had been held on Tuesday, Warren led with a score of 23 points, but all the leaders had been eliminated in the heats. When four of the six finals had been completed Warren was still in front, but Roger Clark then emerged from the ruck and hit the front with 24½ points looking to have the trophy in his keeping. But he had to be content with second place when Nick Heath came from the clouds landing the sixth final with a score of 25½ points.

That is the second trophy that Warren looked like winning but there's no certainties in the pool.

The tussle for the Native Son is very keen. There have been some changes in the battle order since the last issue, although Basil Phillips still remains on top sharing the honour equally with Roger Clark on 80½ points followed by Col Bowes 80, Nick Heath 76½, Russell Debney 74½, Michael McCormack 74, Jim Comans 73, Roger Farrell, David Dind and Philip Moses all on 72.

As only 18½ points separate the first 24 swimmers, there is plenty of time for further change as the season does not close until July.

The latest members to race were John Czinner and Rod Christie, two smart athletic types and both good swimmers.

Ian Lane is swimming very consistently but ruined his chances in the monthly by starting before his time and being ousted. The boys have nicknamed our check starter "Hawk Eye McCamley."

Good to see Max Sernack and Bruce Watson back in the swim, Max is always ready to lend a hand at all times.

A number of members swam so well during the month that they were docked a second each in their handicaps — A. Foster, K. Glass, I. Lane, J. Vale, W. Foster, A. Tyler, W. Harrison, J. Reid, W. Butchart, B. Cameron, D. O'Connor and A. Hickey.

Fastest winning times were R. Debney 19.1 and 19.6, W. Foster 19.5 and 20.0, P. Blake 20.2, B. Mortensen 20.5, P. King 20.3 and 20.7, I. Lane 20.5 and 20.6, M. McCormack 20.8.

Pleasant surprise for all was the welcome appearance of former Olympic champions John Devitt and Michael Wenden. John partnered John Ward in winning a brace relay, and Michael gave an exhibition swim over 80 yards which was rewarded with a generous round of applause.

Les Harrison, who swims in the pool every morning when he comes to town, was in company with Burchamp Clamat, the architect who designed the pool and was among the first to break the water some 44 years ago.

Les mentioned that he is very interested in a namesake and connection Brian Harrison, who won the Encouragement Award for young athletes. Australia can look well to the future where we have a young boy of 12 years of age clocking 12.6 seconds for the 100 metres, 25.7 for the 200 metres and 8.9 in the 60 yards hurdle to break the record by seven tenths of a second.

This lad has the potential to be another Jimmy Carlton, and his novel training sessions will ensure he keeps his interest. He trains with the North Sydney Rugby League team, and the sight of 4'10" Brian effortlessly keeping up with the big men is a sight for sore eyes.

Tattersall's members will be keeping a weather eye on your progress, Brian. Good luck.

Congratulations are the order of the day for Malcolm Stening who has been appointed advertising manager of the Daily Telegraph. Malcolm's pleasing personality and energetic driving power should ensure his future success in any venture.
